25X1A

1. [] Comment. Available information indicates that CHANG is still governor of Fukien and concurrently commander of the Fukien Military District.

25X1A

25X1A

[] mentioned him as commander of the district, and [] listed him as governor as of August 1952, also stating that he had been transferred to Korea for active duty with the Chinese People's Volunteer Army.
A Peiping broadcast of 18 January 1953 indicated that he was also concurrently a vice-chairman of the East China Administrative Committee.

25X1A 2.

[] Comment. Available information indicates that YEH is still a deputy governor of Fukien, a position he has held since 1950. Both [] (August 1952) and [] reported that he was to act as chairman of the Fukien government during the governor's absence. Information available in March 1953 listed him concurrently as secretary of the Chinese Communist Party in Fukien.

25X1A

25X1A

25X1A 3.

[] Comment. According [] FANG I, former deputy chairman of Fukien, was transferred to Shanghai to serve as deputy mayor in late July 1952.

25X1A

25X1A

[] Comment. A NCNA broadcast on 26 May 1953 reported that he had been removed from his position in Shanghai, but this is the first report that he returned to his former position in the Fukien government.

25X1A 4.

[] Comment. Information available in August 1950 listed TING as a member of the Inspection Committee of the East China Administrative District.
According to [] in December 1951 he was deputy chairman of the Fukien Provincial Assembly and a member of the Military Affairs Committee of the East China Regional Government.

25X1A

25X1A 5.

[] Comment. Information available in August 1950 listed CH'EN as a member of the Inspection Committee of the East China Administration District.
[] reported that he became governor of Fukien in October 1950, replacing CHANG Ting-ch'eng; and [] stated that in mid-June 1952 he was head of an anti-flood and anti-drought command in Fukien.

25X1A

25X1A

6. [] Comment. CH'EN, previously carried as director of the Education Department of the Fukien government, reportedly replaced FANG I as a deputy governor when FANG became deputy mayor of Shanghai. According to [] CH'EN was appointed vice-governor on 18 October 1952; see [] for more

25X1

[] The present report is the first to list
FANG I again among the deputy governors; the presence of both FANG and CH'EN may indicate that CH'EN has been advanced to deputy governor permanently or that he is holding that position concurrently with his old job as head of the Education Department.

25X1A

25X1A 7. [] Comment. [] there is also a Personnel Department, headed by LIU Shang-chih (0491/1424/0037).

25X1A

25X1A 8. [] Comment. MENG Tung-po (1322/2639/3134) was listed as the new chief secretary of the Fukien government []

25X1A 9. [] Comment. Available information confirmed LAN in this position as of August 1950. LAN is also mentioned as a commissioner in paragraph 4 of the present report.

25X1A 10. [] Comment. Although available information does not indicate HSU in this position, it is possible that he replaced CH'EN Hsin-jen, if CH'EN became a deputy governor. HSU is also listed as a commissioner in paragraph 4.

25X1A

25X1A 11. [] Comment. According to [] YANG was Director of the Fukien Financial Department.

25X1A 12. [] Comment. According to [] there was a separate Forestry Department, with CHIANG I-chen (3068/0001/4176) as director.

25X1A

25X1A 13. [] Comment. [] KU was director of the Fukien Commercial Department.

25X1A

25X1A 14. [] Comment. According to [] HUANG was Director of the Public Health Department.

25X1A 15. [] Comment. YEH was reported in the same position [] According to [] he was named head of the Public Security Department of the East China Military Area in late July 1952, replacing LIANG Kuo-pin (2733/0948/2430). YEH is also among the commissioners mentioned below.

25X1A

25X1A 16. [] Comment. TS'UI filled the same post in September 1952, according to []

25X1A 17. [] Comment. HSU and LIANG both appear in the list of provincial commissioners in paragraph 4.

25X1 18. [] CHIANG was Director of the Forestry Department, according to []

25X1A 19. [] Comment. [] reported LIU as deputy commander of the Fukien Military District, a post he may hold concurrently with that of Commissioner.

25X1A
